THE Paris Kentuckian-Citizen says: "There was a sad sight on our train as we came from Millersburg Thursday morning. A beautiful young lady with her suit of golden hair all disheveled and she held as a raving maniac. She is Louisa Crawford, of Lewis County, near Cottageville.

A SPECIAL from Washington City Saturday says Second Assistant Postmaster-General Whitfield to-day issued an order discontinuing the service of railway post-office cars on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad between Cincinnati, Ohio, and Newport News, Va. The stated reason for this action is that the business on that line did not justify the expense incident thereto.

GONE TO THE BANK.

The Ferryboat Gretna Green Laid Up On Account of a Strike.

The ferryboat Gretna Green is not running to-day.

The craft is moored at the Ohio landing, having been laid up on account of a strike by the crew this morning.

Captain Power was seen and says the trouble is the result of the action of the City Council of Maysville. Last Thursday night the Mayor and Marshal, on motion of Councilman Wood, were instructed to enforce the ordinance in reference to running the boat.

The ordinance requires the boat to make her first trip at 4 a. m., and to do this the families of the engineer and other members of the crew would be compelled to get up at 3 a. m. to have breakfast in time for the boat to make the first trip at the hour stated. This they refuse to do, and as a result the boat is without a crew to-day.

Captain Power says that not over half a dozen people ever cross earlier than 6 or half-past 6 o'clock in the morning, and that these can be ferried by skiff. He is willing to start the boat at 6 a. m. and run till 7 p. m., remaining at each landing ten minutes every trip, but he says there is no necessity at all for commencing at an earlier hour.

According to the Captain's sworn statement the average receipts from his boat were: In 1884, $12 47 a day; 1885, $11.71 a day; 1886, $10 26 a day, and in 1887, $10 96 a day. He claims she is barely making expenses.

THE Lexington Transcript, speaking of the concert at that place Thursday night, says: "Miss Mattie Evans, of Maysville, opened the programme with a splendid instrumental duet by Liszt. Miss Evans, be it said, who rendered many subsequent numbers as successfully as the first, is a most magnificent pianist. Her solo by Raff and the final duet with Signor D'Anna were rendered in a masterly manner."

THE Lancaster correspondent of the Danville Advocate says: "Dr. John M. Frazee, of Maysville, well-known to our citizens, having married Miss Eliza Lusk, of this county, a daughter of the late Judge Samuel Lusk, has submitted his name to the Democratic party of his county for the nomination for Representative in the next Legislature. If good wishes will augur success, the many friends here tender theirs with hearty good will."

THE remains of H. J. Evans were interred yesterday afternoon at Augusta. Ringgold Lodge no. 27, I. O. O. F., of this city, had charge of the funeral services. About thirty or forty of the Oddfellows of this city, accompanied by Hauck's Reed and Brass Band, went down on the Bostona in the morning to attend the burial. Several members of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., also attended the funeral. The crowd returned on the W. N. Chanselor last night.

THE trial of the case of John Fox against the Kentucky Central Railroad Company resulted Saturday in a verdict of $1,400 for the plaintiff. Fox sued for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained some years ago by being struck by an engine in the yard at this place, one of his legs being badly fractured at the time. This was the second trial of the case. The first trial resulted in a judgment for Fox for $2,500, but the company appealed and the upper court reversed the decision.

MESSRS. Wm. H. Cox, Thomas A. Davis, Byron Rudy, John G. Payne, Duke A. Rudy, Frank Bromley and M. F. Marsh, of DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., and Mr. Albert N. Huff, of Ringgold Lodge No. 27, visited the lodge at Concord Saturday night. Fourteen of the brethren from Rome, O., were also present. The visiting members conferred the initiatory degree on six candidates. With Mr. Cox as Noble Grand, Mr. Davis as Past Grand, Mr. Byron Rudy as Conductor, Messrs. Bromley and Huff as Scene Supporters and two of the Rome brothers as Warden and Vice Grand, the work was well done. During their visit the Maysville crowd were entertained by Concord Lodge at the Hisey Hotel, E. J. Fitch proprietor.

MISS AMY FAY will appear at the opera house to-night in her "piano conversations" under the auspices of the Maysville Musical Club. The box-sheet at Blatterman's indicates that she will be greeted by a large audience. She appeared at Lexington last Friday night, and the Transcript says: "The entertainment was a most unique and charming affair and enjoyed by an audience composed of the most cultivated people. Between each number, Miss Fay with a charming, native grace and bright womanliness, would rise from the piano and give a sort of descriptive analysis of each piece, abounding in original and piquant conceptions all her own, and introducing amusing and interesting incidents in the life of the musician whose work she was about to interpret. Miss Fay is unquestionably a remarkable genius."

KENTUCKY CROPS.

Monthly Report of the State Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mr. Charles Y. Wilson, State Commissioner of Agriculture, in his monthly report for April says:

We have reports from 87 counties, giving details of crops about the 27th of April. The season is generally from ten to fifteen days earlier than usual, and crops of all kinds, that are in season, are well advanced. Farmers are well up with work. Corn is mostly planted. Forward wheat is heading out. Meadows and pastures generally look well. Gardens are well advanced. Stock, from the effects of the unusual open and pleasant winter, are in good condition. The rainfall has been remarkably light and rain is needed badly in many sections of the State. The recent showers have not been general over the State. Springsown clover, and other grasses, and oats, are, in many sections, very seriously damaged; at the same time the State average is above the usual standard.

The increase of population, clearing new lands, and the redemption of abandoned fields, is every year adding to the area of tillable soil. The increase of one or more crops correspondingly reduces others. This year the increase seems to have gone to wheat, corn, oats and the different grasses. Kentucky being well adapted to their growth, and being one of the leading States for fine stock, this is regarded as a move in the right direction.

It can not be too often repeated that scrub stock should be abandoned and the better breeds substituted.

TOBACCO.—It is yet too early to determine with any accuracy the probable extent of this crop. The number of plantbeds sown indicates at least the usual crop. Complaint is made that many beds have been destroyed by dry weather and insects. The extent of the crop will depend entirely upon the future weather conditions. I hope by July first to give with reasonable accuracy the acreage, compared with 1888. I beg to urge upon tobacco planters a reasonable curtailment of production; by doing this they can make a better quality and obtain fully as much money for the crop as they would for a larger crop at less prices.

CORN.—The acreage in corn will be fully up to that of 1888; planting will average ten days to two weeks earlier than usual. The present prospects for a large crop are very favorable.

WHEAT.—The prospect has never, in my recollection, been better than now for a large crop of wheat. It is now heading in many places, is well stalked, and green and vigorous.

OATS.—This spring crop, in many parts of the State, has suffered for want of rains. In sections of drought and on high, thin soil, this crop is looking very badly; on the lower moist lands the crop is very fine.

RYE.—The crop was very promising last fall throughout the State, but in sections where the drought prevailed has been seriously injured.

FRUIT.—The promise for an abundant supply of all kinds of fruit grown in this State is very encouraging. Some of the earlier fruits were injured by frost, but at this writing the prospect is excellent.

Stock, Field and Farm

Martin (Tenn.) Mail: "The tobacco plants are suffering from the attack of a small insect."

It is estimated that the saw-mills of America annually take from the forests enough timber to make 30,000,000,000 feet of lumber.

The tobacco fly is playing sad havoc with the plant beds in South Christian and certain parts of Trigg County, says an exchange.

Georgetown Times: "Some of the tobacco growers have an abundance of nice plants, while others have nearly entirely failed in this way."

Mayfield Democrat: "Tobacco bugs are eating tobacco plants, and if they continue their trade another week they will have all the plants."

W. H. Wilson, of Cynthiana, has bought the trotters Bonnie Wilkes, Lotie Thorne, Patient Green, Almatamer Green, Hattie Case, Bonnie Bon, Lillie Thorne and Rose Patchen for $14,050.

Julien, the three-year-old bay colt of J. D. Hughes, of Nicholasville, broke a tendon at Lexington, which will ruin him. A few minutes before the colt was put on the track Mr. Hughes refused $4,000 for him.

A special to the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette from Augusta says the cry about the failure of the tobacco plants is a ruse of the farmers to get a better price for the crop now on hand. This may be true of Bracken, but it is not so here in Mason. The BULLETIN'S information in regard to the destruction of plants is all from reliable sources and not exaggerated.

Notice, 133.

Who is the lucky person that holds ticket no. 133? This is the number which gets the saddle given away by me. The person who has the ticket will please present it and get the prize. The drawing was in charge of Messrs. Mose Daulton and R. H. Newell, and the ticket holders can feel satisfied that everything was fair and square. There were 303 draws made before the prize came out. Thanking my friends and patrons for their kind patronage and hoping for a continuance of same I remain respectfully,
Geo. Schroeder.
